

Privacy Policy

Please also refer to our “Terms & Conditions” and “Refunds Policy”

We are mindful and take security seriously to protect your privacy and confidentiality. We understand that all users of our site are concerned to know that their data will not be used for any purpose other than to provide the Service (online dog show entries and dog show publications) and we will not pass, sell or disclose your details to any third party. We expect you and any partnership to reciprocate this policy. The information collected from you is used so that we may enhance the Service that we provide.

When you register an account for our services you are asked for personal and other information, which will also be used for, maintaining accounts, billing purposes, to enable us to answer your enquiries, to communicate with you, to verify your identity for security purposes and to help make our website as useful to you as possible.

There is certain information that is mandatory that we require from you and these fields are identified, however there are also some fields that are optional.

You are able to edit, update and amend your personal information which is advisable at all times so that your record is kept correct and up to date. You can also delete your own account at any time.

We can also at our discretion delete your account if failure to pay any fees due. We will also terminate your account without warning or re-imburement of fees if your account is used in an inappropriate way. We will also delete any offensive material or any other information that we think is not fit for purpose.

We do not store or have visibility of your Credit Card/Debt Card details. We do not store card details or process financial transactions ourselves. All financial transactions are handled through SagePay using their secure system server and encryption. Card details are sent directly from your web browser to Sage Pay’s secure servers via a REST API, for payment processing.

All other information/data resides on a secure and protected server used by Cavalier Impressions.

Disclosure to Government and their agencies. We are subject to the law like everyone else. We may be required to give information to legal authorities if they so requested or if they have the proper authorisation such as a search warrant or court order.
